Any person having such Commercial license (and acceptance of said license shall constitute agreement) for the taking of shellfish and who violates any laws of the Commonwealth or any regulations made by the Edgartown Selectmen relating to shellfish or Shell fishing in said Town shall be subject to the following penalties:

1. First citation;

Violators of these regulations shall be a $100 fine.

2. Second citation;

Violators of these regulations shall have their licenses automatically suspended for a period of one (1) to five (5) fishable day.

3. Third citation;

Violators of these regulations must appear before the Board of Selectmen. Said Board at a fair and open hearing may, upon recommendation of the Shellfish Constable or Deputy Shellfish Constable and Shellfish Committee have such license suspended for a period of ten (10) to thirty (30) fishable days.

4. Fourth citation;

Violators of these regulations must appear before the Board of Selectmen. Said Board at a fair and open hearing may, upon recommendation of the Shellfish Constable or Deputy Shellfish constable and Shellfish Committee depending on the and severity of the offense shall have such license suspended for a period from sixty (60) to one-hundred-eighty (180) fishable days at the Board's sole discretion.

5. Severe offenses which shall include but are not limited to: stealing, failure to display (hidden caches), fishing in closed areas, or critical harvest of seed, could incur penalties to be determined at the discretion of the Shellfish

Constable, or Deputy Shellfish Constable and the Shellfish Committee.

§9B. If a license suspension carries beyond the close of the season of the species being harvested, the balance of the suspension remaining shall be carried over to that species next season.

§9C. If there are no subsequent offenses during a three (3) year period starting with the date of the last offense, the individual will be considered to have a clean slate.
